WETS SEEK TO HAVE CONSTITUTIONAL PROHIBITION AMENDMENT NULLIFIED

Permission to Institute Proceedings Asked of The Supreme Court.

RETAIL LIQUOR DEALERS ASSOCIATION BACKS MOVE

Claim Measure Did Not Receive Two-Thirds Vote Necessary To Enact.

Also Ask An Injunction On The Volstead Act.

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, December 16.—Permission to institute original proceedings to have the national prohibition amendment declared unconstitutional and New Jersey and federal authorities enjoined from enforcing it was asked of the supreme court today by the retail liquor dealers' association of New Jersey.

This was the first question as to the validity of the constitutional amendment to reach the supreme court. George Tucker, of New York, presented the motion, together with a printed brief prepared by the association and the court will announce later whether permission to institute the suit will be granted.

In addition to enjoining enforcement of the 18th amendment the association also would ask an injunction against enforcement of the Volstead prohibition enforcement act.

The association's brief alleged the constitutional amendment was an interference with the state police powers, a violation of the fifth constitutional amendment which prohibits the taking of private property without just compensation; that neither Congress nor the state legislatures had authority to propose or ratify the amendment and that the amendment when passed did not receive the support of two-thirds of the membership, but only two-thirds of the members present.

His amendments would force out of business concerns that do not at all times afford protection to employees. New Recommendations To Be Made At Once.

Not Known When Wilson Will Turn Roads Back

Nor has there been any indication as to when the President will issue a proclamation surrendering the roads or announce a change in his plans. Some administration officials believe the fate of the railroad legislation in Congress will be a determining factor in whatever is done. "PEPPY" PLAY FOUND AT THE COLONIAL

"A Temperamental Wife," with Constance Talmadge an irrepressible, delightful star, is an Emerson Loos First National Attraction drawing big audiences at the Colonial theater the first three days of this week. It is a "Peppy" play in the fullest sense and is built around the natural antipathy of the wife for her husband's pretty stenographer.

Taking the part of Billie Billings, pretty, wealthy and afflicted with an unreasonably jealous nature, Constance Talmadge has a novel assortment of experiences both before and after her marriage to the Senator from Nevada, the only man who covered her requirements.

The photo play runs through Wednesday and providing entertainment galore for Colonial theater goers.

Milk Tastes Better on Cold Mornings

Milk, real, good old pure fresh milk, tastes mighty good any time, but on cold, snappy mornings, its flavor and deliciousness seems to improve.

Hot cereal with good rich and cold milk for breakfast is hard to beat, you'll admit. Or a glass of health-giving, body-building fresh milk along with one's breakfast surely starts the day right.

Ask yourself if milk is not an economical food at the present time. Food qualities considered, milk is the cheapest thing you can serve on your table. Use it freely and cut costs.

SPRAIN PROVES A BROKEN ARM

It has developed that the injury which Clyde English received Saturday night when he fell on the ice on Main street is a broken arm at the shoulder and not a sprain as was at first believed. Examination by a doctor after the shoulder had given the young man much trouble disclosed the broken bone.

It will be some time before he will be able to use his arm owing to the nature of the fracture.

CHICKENS LIVE TO GRACE TABLE

Two chickens hatched from the same egg and connected by a thin membrane which was severed in order to let the chicks live, are to form part of the dinner of the Dutch Treaters, Thursday, at the Y. M. C. A.

Last spring at the Brownell Packing House a double egg was hatched in the incubators of the plant from which came the "Siamese chickens." Both were perfect in shape with the exception of a connection at the wings. John Duncan of Rock Mills took the chickens and by a slight operation separated them. They grew to be healthy birds.

Today afternoon they were on exhibition in the dressed state and ready for the pot.

SOCIAL : PERSONAL MENTION : CLUBS

The Christmas rush is now on. There's no use thinking that because the gospel of early Christmas shopping is energetically preached and to a constantly growing extent practiced, that there will not still be plenty of late shoppers to create a Christmas rush. Regardless of the large amount of early buying and the fact that big crowds have been made on Christmas stocks, there is still splendid selection for this never failing late rush.

Of course the day of the penny has long since passed in Christmas shopping as in everything else, but shoppers are surprised at the many reasonably priced gifts.

Yet the changed conditions of the past few years make apropos a little incident chronicled in the New York Sun.

There's a five year old boy who lives a few doors from the Woman who has won her affection by his cheery smile and the hearty "good morning" or "good night" he flings her as she passes him.

The lad plays out of doors early and late, and sometimes the Woman stops to chat with him and to give him a penny. At first he used to squeal with delight at the sight of the copper, but lately the Woman has noted that he accepts the coin without any show of elation. And yesterday after they had talked together about school, which he would soon attend, he refused to take the proffered coin.

"But, Tommy, why not? Is it because you feel too big?"

"Oh, no," said Tommy gloomily. "It's just no use. I can't get anything for a penny any more. It's just no use."

Friends in this city were greatly surprised, Tuesday, when they received telegrams announcing the marriage of Mr. Harry DeWitt and Miss Mary Anderson, the ceremony performed in Dayton.

The groom is the son of Mr. W. A. DeWitt, of Dayton, but has made this city his home, and his bride is a graduate nurse of the Fayette Hospital.

A wide circle of friends are extending best wishes, with the hope that they may decide to make this city their future home.

Mrs. William Boynton Gage pleasantly entertained the Clonians Tuesday afternoon.

The Club study of playwrights was followed by refreshments and visiting.

Special interest attaches to the Holiday concert which will be given at the High School Auditorium by the Glee Clubs Friday night from the fact that it is the first public concert given under the training and direction of the new Supervisor of Music, Miss Louise Habegger and also the first appearance of the Glee Clubs.

The Clubs have been working hard and the program, arranged in three parts, promises to be very entertaining.

Part first will consist of songs of high order; part second will be in the nature of humorous musical stunts—the Girls' Club presenting "The Tunnyola" and the Boys' Club, "The Toy Symphony" and in part third both Clubs gather together informally for "a Sing" of familiar and popular songs, closing with two High School songs.

Seats for this concert which were put on sale Tuesday, are going well and there is little doubt of large patronage.

It has become an established custom, and a very delightful one, with Mrs. Austin F. Hopkin to entertain the young women of her Sunday School Class with a Christmas party at their regular December meeting, and on Monday night the hospitality of her beautiful home was extended with the utmost cordiality.

Over fifty guests, including a few specially invited guests associated with the work of the Class and former members found the entire evening one of exceptional pleasure and interest.

A delicious buffet supper was served in the commodious dining room, the table having for its centerpiece a most artistic arrangement of red carnations narcissi and fern.

Following the supper the hostess gracefully filled the role of toastmistress and impromptu responses were made by Rev. and Mrs. Wm. Boynton Gage, Dr. Fred D. Woolard, Superintendent of the Sunday School, Miss Emma Wilson, retiring President, and several others.

A brief business session was held and the new officers elected for the coming year were: President, Mrs. Frank S. Jackson; Vice President, Miss Vera Veall; Secretary, Mrs. A. Clark Gossard; Assistant Secretary, Mrs. Will O. Klever; Treasurer, Miss Grace Mick; Assistant, Miss Esther Leland.

The later part of the evening was enjoyed in Victrola music and congenial sociability.

Mrs. W. W. Ellis and guest, Mrs. Louis Weinmann, of San Francisco, Cal., were visitors in Cincinnati, Monday.

Christmas shoppers from Austin in this city Tuesday were Mr. and Mrs. Glenn Cottrill, Mrs. Frank Young, Mrs. Wm. Near.

Mrs. Katharine Fortier was the guest of Miss Katherine Walker while in Cincinnati on business the past two days.

Mrs. Harry Pugsley was up from Chillicothe shopping here Tuesday.

Mrs. Alice Moorman and Mrs. Fred B. Creamer spent the past two days in Columbus, visiting Mrs. D. L. Thompson and family.

Mrs. H. C. Ireland spent Monday in Cincinnati, accompanying her mother Mrs. J. W. Hughey, who was leaving for California.

Mr. Sam Evans returned the first of the week from a business trip to Grand Rapids, Michigan.

Conforming to an established custom Christmas Carols will be sung this year by the Public School grades, under the direction of Miss Louise Habegger, teacher of music.

The grades will be assembled in Grace M. E. Church Friday afternoon at two o'clock for the singing of these Carols and the public is cordially invited to hear them.

"Miss Edith Foster has returned to her home in Bloomingburg after spending the past week with Mr. and Mrs. James Foster of this city."—Chillicothe News-Advertiser.

F. L. Fraser, general secretary of the Y. M. C. A. spent Tuesday in Columbus on business.

"Miss Dora Schmokey has returned home after a two weeks' visit with Mrs. Joseph Pratt of Washington C. H."—Chillicothe News-Advertiser.

Mr. Matt Rentschler and Mr. J. F. Rentschler arrived last Saturday and are visiting their sister Mrs. John Warnecke and family at 208 Paint street. They reside at Kansas City, Mo., and this is their first visit here in forty years.

Mr. and Mrs. William Pickering leave Thursday for a couple of months visit with Mrs. Pickering's sister, in St. Louis, and brother in St. Joe, Mo.

Mrs. Minnie Flee was the week end guest of her brother, Mr. Henry Snider, and other relatives in Dayton.

Mr. and Mrs. A. R. Stokesbury moved Tuesday, from the Waterloo pike into the bungalow on S. Main street, which they recently purchased from Mrs. Simon Hidy. Mr. Ernest Crouse and family will occupy the Stokesbury bungalow, which they now own.

It is gratifying news to a host of friends and former parishioners that Rev. T. W. Locke, who has been seriously ill at his home in Columbus for sometime, is improving rapidly, and his physician is very hopeful of a speedy recovery.

Shopping visitors in this city Monday from Jeffersonville included Mr. and Mrs. William Dill, Mrs. Frank Zimmerman, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Draper.

Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Craig and Miss Mary Craig were visitors in Cincinnati, Tuesday.

Mr. Jack DeWitt spent Sunday and Monday in Cincinnati.

Prof. W. W. Davies was down from Delaware spending the week end with Mrs. Davies.

Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Roberts spent Tuesday in Columbus.

SEEKS TO BREAK THE BRYAN WILL

CINCINNATI, Dec. 16—Dr. L. D. Bryan, a brother of John Bryan, "The Sage of Yellow Springs, O.," has filed suit in common pleas court here seeking to set aside his brother's will.

John Bryan, who owned the Physician's Supply Company, left a fortune estimated at more than $500,000. His Yellow Springs property he gave to the state of Ohio, with the stipulation that it was to be held for a game preserve, and that no "religious public worship" be permitted there. He gave his widow, Fredericka Bryan, $100,000; his niece, Minerva Bryan, $20,000; his office manager, Ella Maud Lytle, $50,000 and his brothers and sisters $5,000 each.

The Union Savings Bank and Trust Company of Cincinnati is executor and trustee under his will.

It is expected that the will will be attacked upon the question of the testator's lack of mental capacity.

HAVE YOU READ?

An American Idyll: The Life of Carleton H. Parker, written by his wife.

"A singular freshness of outlook colors every episode of this remarkable story. Only in America could such a life have been lived only by Americans."

Carleton Parker was singularly gifted, singularly beloved, and unusually capable in his chosen field, he was a man who stirred himself and others from the slough of mediocrity, and his story retold by his wife, kindles the same fire of animation in countless readers."

AUTO THEIEVERY DISCUSSED BY HENRY W. JONES

The following communication on the all important subject of automobile stealing has been prepared by Henry W. Jones of this city who is active in the work of running down auto thieves and recovering stolen machines.

"I notice in your columns many complaints because of stolen autos and in some cases I hear of, the local officials are blamed because the car is not found and the thief apprehended. I don't find fault with any one for feeling this way because we always expect the officers to help us when in trouble. This thief proposition could in a measure be handled by officers if the state automobile department was in a position to render proper help to them, which up to the present time has not been given. It is up to them and our law-making bodies to render help in some way to curb auto stealing.

"At the present time, if you should call the state auto department, quote the name of a car and its motor number and ask who procured the license they couldn't tell you the name. You can quote any number you please, for a car and get a license or you can get a license without quoting and motor or car number, and if you desire, you can one day quote a motor number for a touring car then quote the same number for a roadster or truck and get another license.

"You can also get a license under any name you select. Is it any wonder we have auto stealing with such a loose system? Suppose this plan was now in operation; before you could procure a license you must first have some officer of your county certify on your application for license that you are known by him; then you should certify to your motor or car number and in case the number was not given, license should be refused.

"Now a plan to catch the thief: Suppose some one was on duty all the time at the state auto department, so that at any time an officer called and could only give the car or motor number he could at once be informed who procured the license for it. That way any time an officer became suspicious he could at once find out if the machine was stolen.

"Here is how the state auto department could help still more. Suppose the minute a car was stolen the state auto department was notified; they in turn would notify by telegraph 87 sheriffs. Then the duty of each sheriff would be at once to notify by telephone each chief of police of every corporation in his county, entirely covering the state quickly. Don't you think this plan with our present federal law would be a step in the right direction?

"This is drastic means but the case demands it. We have in our state over 500,000 motor vehicles, representing many millions of capital owned by all classes. What the people want is some plan of protection that is effective and really protects. Laws to registers the title would be good if they carried also a plan to catch the thief; if not, nearly useless. I have had 4 years' experience as a county sheriff and know what this plan would mean for them and all police departments, big I feel safe in saying that officers will not shirk but will gladly do their part when given ways and means to act in an effective manner.

"Don't blame your officers; give them a working system. I am not aiming in this statement to cast any reflection upon the state auto department. I just want to give the general public some facts which I believe can be proven by asking any officer his experience with auto thievery. The people will not object to paying auto licenses even if increased, if they get something in return in the way of protection and better roads."

HENRY W. JONES.

IT DROVE AWAY MY BRONCHIAL TROUBLE

Dayton man declares Earle's Hypo-Cod is a dandy remedy for coughs

SUFFERED WITH THIS TROUBLE FIVE YEARS

"I know what a real remedy is for Bronchial trouble because I had it bad myself for years. I was all run-down and worn-out with it too. I had difficulty breathing at times and a tickling sensation in my throat and a persistent cough that wouldn't let go," declared Mr. Wilson whose address is given below.

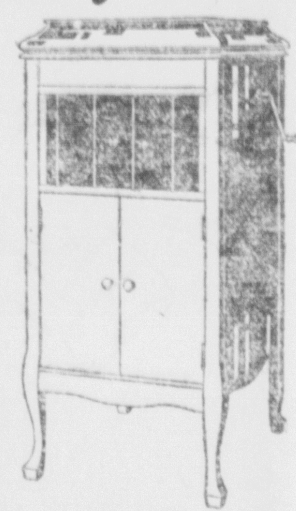

"I saw Earle's Hypo-Cod advertised and have used three bottles of it and I breathe freely and have real 'pep' nowadays. It is the real thing for Bronchial trouble like I had," continued Mr. R. L. Wilson, carpenter, Co. 16 National Military Home, Dayton, O.

Thousands of people cough, spit and hawk around half the morning and think they have a cold this time of year, but unless they treat themselves a few days this trouble is almost sure to become worse as the weather turns colder. It may easily be relieved as others have been relieved. Just go down to the drug store and get a couple bottles of Earle's Hypo-Cod tonight.

Earle's Hypo-Cod is sold here by C. S. Haver's and Frank Christopher's drug store and the leading druggists in all nearby towns. Price $1.25 plus 5c war tax. adv.

ANXIOUS TO AID OTHERS WITH STOMACH TROUBLES

Ashland, Ky., December 2.—Mrs. Wm. Bullington of 604 Front St., has made such a remarkable recovery from a long illness that she tells her experience in the hope that others will be benefited.

"For four years," she says, "I suffered with severe pains in the back of my head, causing dizzy spells and attacks of blindness. At those times I hardly knew what I was saying. All treatment seemed hopeless, altho I went to many specialists and took serum treatment. When these spells passed off they were followed by violent vomiting. At last I tried Dr. Parker's Treatment for Constipation and Indigestion and since taking two boxes I have been practically free from these spells and can eat anything without ill effects. I am still taking this wonderful treatment and believe it will completely cure me. I recommend it to all."

If you suffer from any of the symptoms of constipation or indigestion try Dr. Parker's Treatment. It will relieve you or your dollar and a quarter will be refunded. For sale by all druggists.—Adv.

GAVE HER ALL FOR RED CROSS SEAL

Not many people can lay claim to having had the honor of giving all they possess to a worthy cause but a story which was vouched for by a Red Cross seal worker shows that there is at least one person who did this.

A little girl, not yet of school age, slipped through the doors of one of the department stores in this city and approached the booth where the Christmas seals were offered for sale. Her clothes showed that they had probably been worn before her by her sister and her toes were inclined to peek out from a pair of well worn shoes. In one of her tiny hands, purple with cold she clutched a penny.

The workers in charge of the booth asked her what she wanted and she replied, "A Red Cross Seal." She secured the seal, gave a farewell look at her penny, darted for the door and was gone.

CHRISTMAS BUYING UNUSUALLY HEAVY

Washington merchants report Christmas buying is unusually heavy, and that there is every indication that it is going to keep up to the last minute before closing time on Christmas eve.

Shoppers generally are heeding the admonition to shop early this year, and are realizing the advantages this year as never before, for late shoppers in virtually all cities this year are going to find gift stocks depleted to an unusual degree.

FEW GOLD COINS HELD BY BANKS

Persons who have been seeking $5 and $10 gold pieces as Christmas gifts are finding them hard to obtain from the banks because the coins have been called in by the government for the purpose of using in foreign trade, it is understood.

As a result of the call, few banks have many gold coins on hand at present.

CINCINNATI GAS RATE IS NOW 35C

The new gas rate in Cincinnati, in effect for the next two years, is 35c per 1,000 cubic feet—an increase of 5c per 1,000 cubic feet.

The price was fixed by the court after a considerable time spent in fighting even a five cent increase.

ALL DEALERS HAVE SUPPLY OF COAL

It was announced Tuesday that every dealer of the city had been supplied with coal. In all about fifteen cars were distributed. Some of the coal went to the Washington Gas and Electric Company. Although there is not an abundance of coal in the city it is believed that the supply is sufficient to last until the new coal arrives from the mines. The new coal is expected withing the next five or six days.

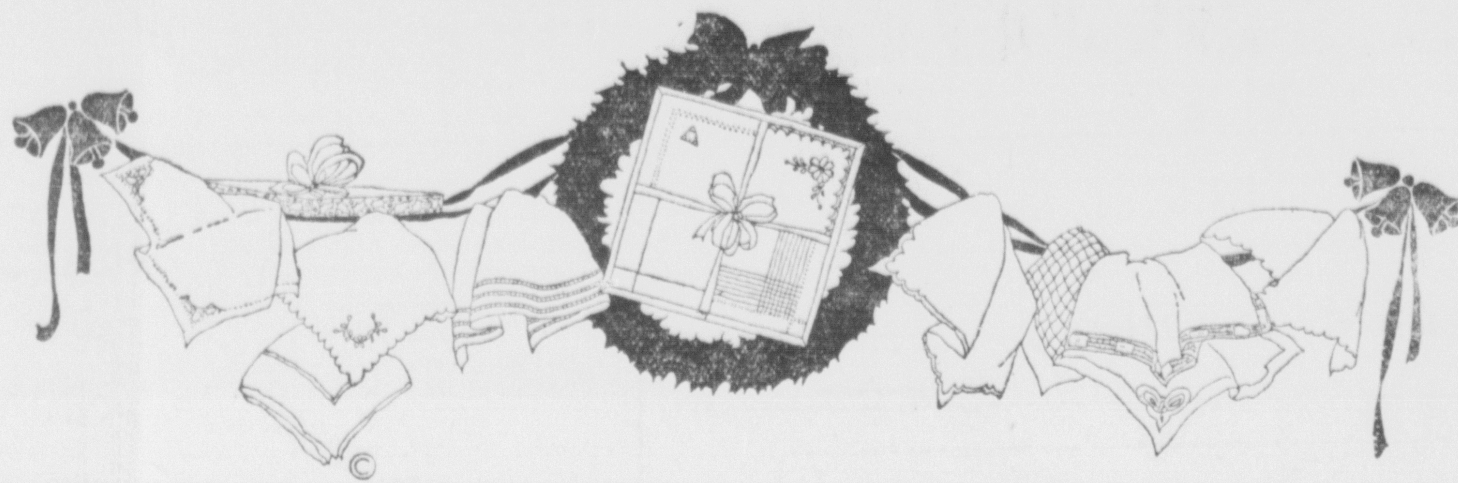

MIGHT HAVE SAVED YOURSELF EASILY

That intense tightness in your breathing and the soreness in your lungs are a warning that the cold you have is getting deeper and more serious every day you neglect it.

You might have avoided that cold if you had been prepared with Duffee's Cough Syrup. But since you have it the sensible thing to do is to begin treatment with Duffee's Cough Syrup right now and get rid of these distressing symptoms as quickly as you can.

These remedies have no harmful ingredients, and may be taken by the most delicate, but their remedial action is quick and powerful.

Your druggist or your grocer can supply you, and you are making a mistake if you don't prepare for winter colds and coughs with these time-tested remedies.—Adv.

The store is striving to serve every one of its patrons well, though we suggest the wisdom of early morning shopping for everybody and everything is at its best then.

BRITAIN FACE TO FACE WITH COAL STRIKE

from apprehension that Great Britain like the United States, may have to face a coal miners' strike at a time when coal is a vital necessity.

The Miners' Federation of Great Britain, an organization of 975,000 members obtained a pledge from the 5,250,000 unionized laborers represented at the Trade Unions Congress at Glasgow in September to "take whatever action may be necessary to compel the government" to accept the miners' demands for nationalization of the industry in which they are employed.

An initial attempt to win governmental approval of the project, the sending of a trades union delegation to consult with the Premier, has failed.

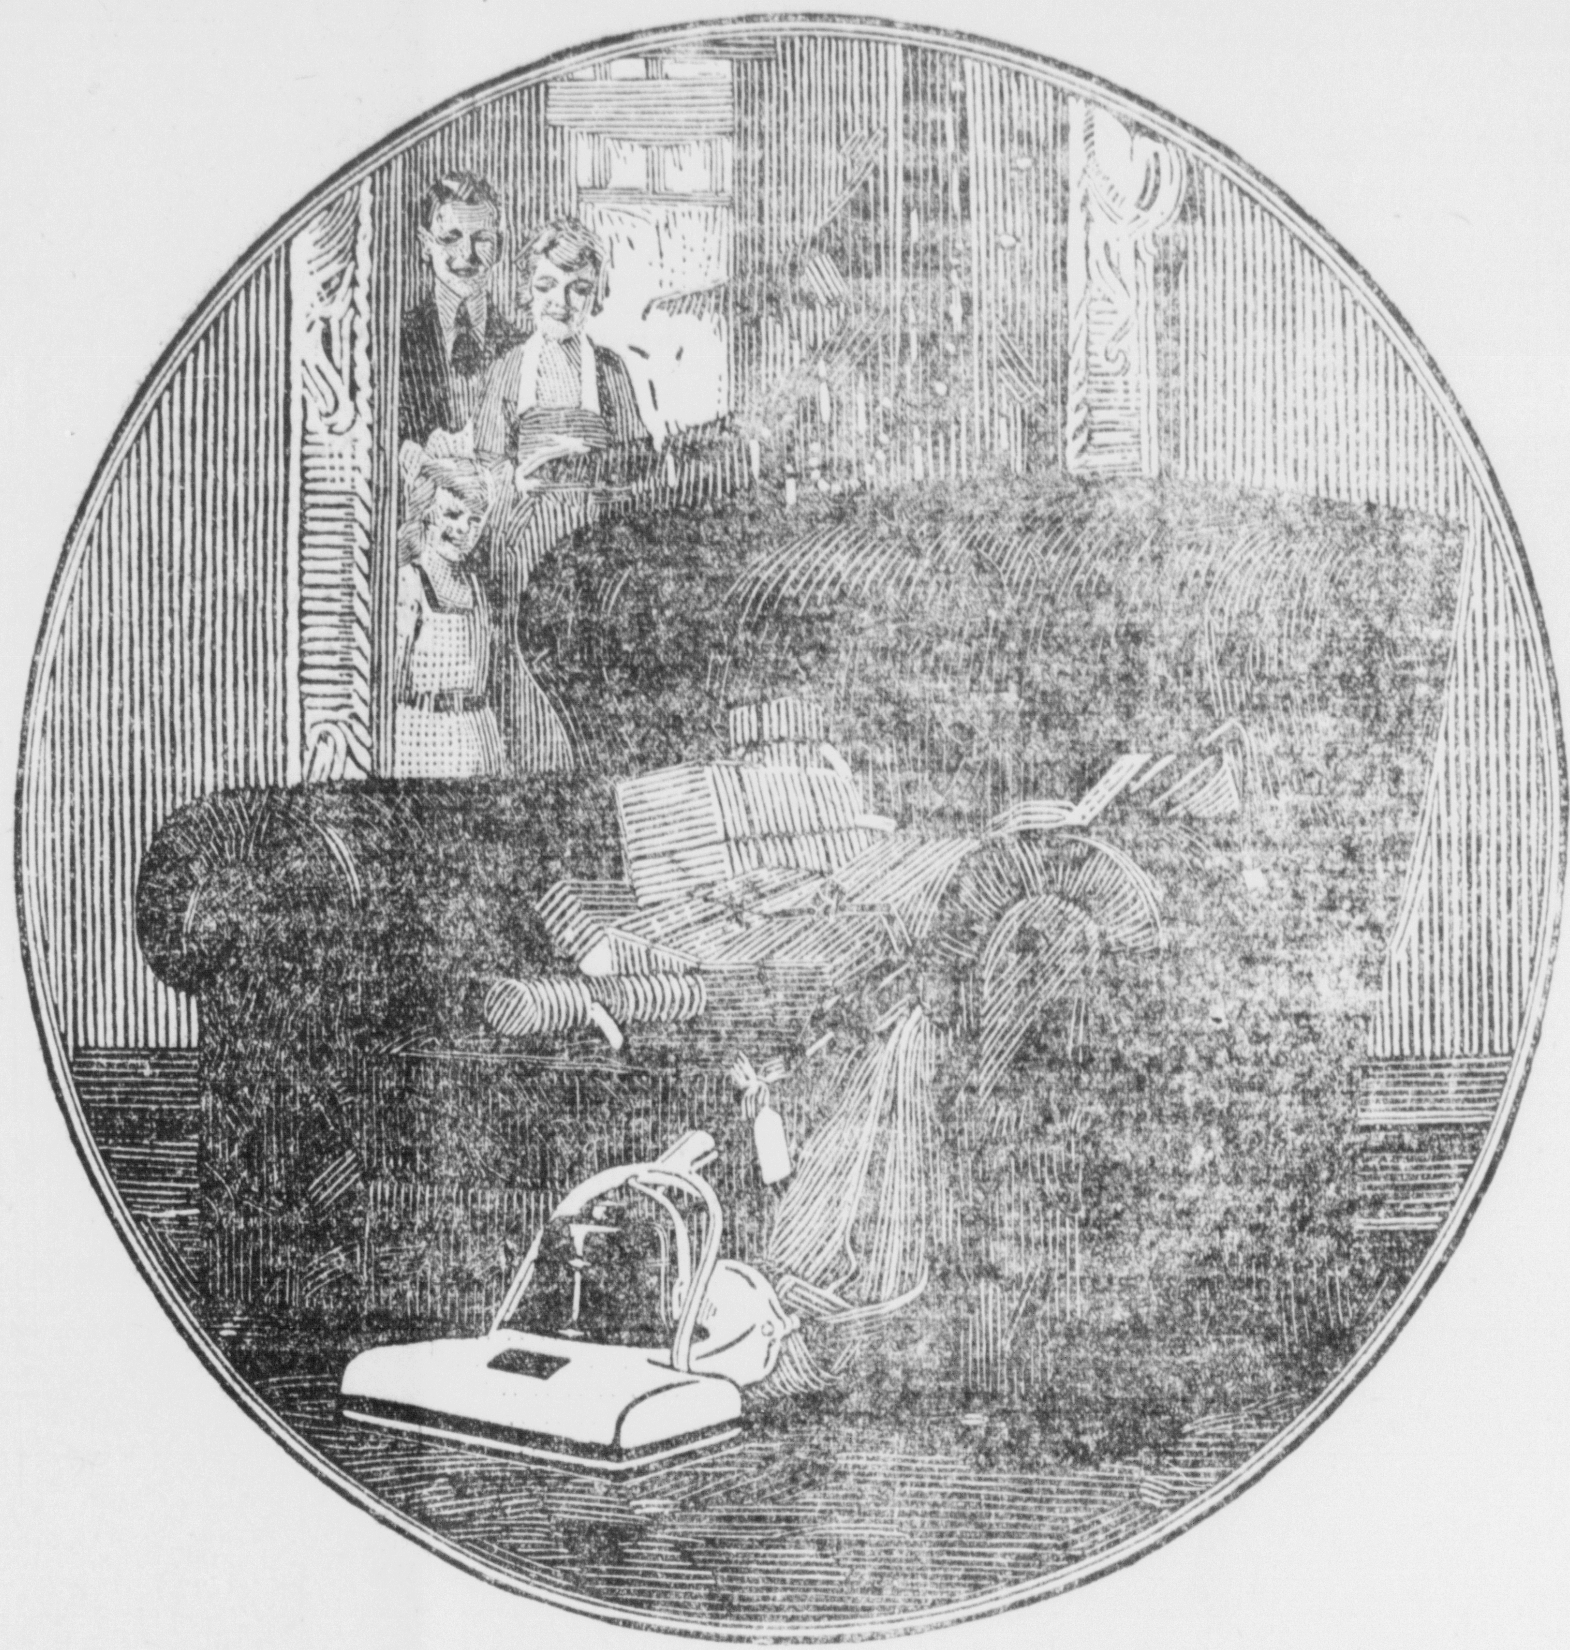

Many persons contend that the whole matter is merely being held in obedience until the return of the British delegation from the Washington Labor Conference. This delegation numbers G. H. Stuart Bunning, C. W. Bowerman and others who are reckoned among the most skillful of the British labor's strategists.

Meanwhile the miners' campaign of propaganda to "educate" the public in the school of industrial nationalization—an attempt to show that state control and joint operation of the coal mines would be a "paying proposition" to the state, the consumer and the miner—has been launched. Along with it, the miners are making another strong bid for popularity in a campaign against high prices. They aver that they would welcome a smashing of the "vicious circle" of high prices and high wages and thereby improve the standard of living by reducing cost. This agitation, it is conceded cannot have a favorable reaction of the public opinion of benefit to the miners.

PROFITEERING!

Oxford Eng., November 29.—(By Associated Press)—(By Mail)—The first complaint to the Profiteering Committee of this town came from Dr. Edwin Cannan who asked for the prosecution of the Chancellor of the Exchequer on the ground that a Treasury Note which "costs less than one penny to produce is being sold in this town at one pound."

The Victory of Labor

This week the presidents of the several steel workers' organizations are to meet in Washington for the purpose, it seems generally understood, of formally calling off the strike of steel workers which has been a complete failure, so far as the men are concerned, from the start.

Like the coal miners' strike, the strike of steel workers was doomed to failure from the start because public sentiment did not support the action of the strikers.

With the coal miners returning to work by the thousands and the great mass of steel workers already at work, formal action already taken by the union heads of the coal miners and formal announcement rescinding the strike order expected within a few days by the steel workers' union, brighter days seem near at hand and the passing of the strike fever, a not unexpected result following the great war, our industrial disturbances seem to give promise of vanishing during the early months of the coming year.

The greatest victory won in all the strike disturbances has been won by patriotic American labor in the knowledge gained of the ruinous effect of radical leadership.

If American labor will but profit by the lesson the experiences of the past few months have taught and rid itself of the revolutionist and anarchistic leadership which has been responsible for all its ills and is responsible for the loss in public esteem suffered by organized labor then the disturbances of the last few months will not have been vainly endured by the American public and the honest workers of the land.

No Compromise

President Wilson will make no offer of compromise nor concession to the Senate majority on the peace treaty, is the official announcement from the White House.

Well, perhaps, that's the human attitude of it, but we very much question its wisdom. In view of all that has gone before it it is not surprising that President Wilson should feel aggrieved toward the Senate majority.

The Senate majority will respond, of course, that the responsibility for the failure to ratify the treaty rests with President Wilson and there we are again with a cleavage in the Senate on party lines.

We really believe that had President Wilson come forward at once and expressed a willingness to accept any reservation which did not destroy the treaty, he would have succeeded much better in putting the Senate majority "in a hole" than he has by this latest announcement.

The people are not so much interested in placing the blame for the failure, thus far, to ratify the treaty as they are that the whole controversy be concluded, the final treaty of peace formally executed and approved and international relations definitely established so that domestic affairs may receive the undivided attention of the executive departments of the government.

The man who forgets the past strife—no matter who is to blame—sacrifices his own opinion, buries his prejudices and points the way out of the dilemma is going to be the big man developed by the clash over the treaty.

The Y. M. C. A.

The local "Y," splendid plant that it is, and has been, and is coming into its own as an available and useful community institution at an amazingly satisfactory rate of progress.

Our Y. M. C. A. has had rather a tempestuous career. In the first place it was a big undertaking for a city of this size, but the initial action went over all right. Then followed some difficulty in keeping it going and serving a real purpose in the community life. It, for quite a time, "failed to function" as a vital influence, but some real public spirited men and a generous public, realizing the possibilities, stayed with the job and kept the institution alive and available. Then came war days and the institution entered upon its most troublesome time.

Now since the war and since a new remodeling of the plan of conducting its affairs the "Y" has forged rapidly to the front. It is about the busiest and most used place in Fayette county. It has met and is meeting a need for young and old. It is available in its new form to young and old and is being used and its influence is being felt—far and wide.

In short the Y. M. C. A. is coming into its own. It has arrived and the community is reaping the harvest in pleasure and benefits made possible by the steadfast faith of those who stood by in days of adversity plus a very intelligent and practical present-day management under General Secretary Frazer and his corps of assistants.

POETRY FOR TODAY

THEY ALSO SERVED

Within the great Hall of the Clock
That measures Life and Time,
The spirits of the martyred dead
Slain in the mighty War—'tis said—
Gather in light sublime.

And 'round the judgment board there wait

Perchance, in shadows gray,
The lesser souls of low estate
That helped to win the day:

The plunging steeds that charged and reeled.

The patient mules borne overseas—
That died in glory on the field
Or fell with the artillery;

The "courtous and industrious dogs"
That dragged the wounded from the fray.

And found the missing dead, and wrought
Great service in that day:

The wailing cats, the fluttering owls,
Canary birds that drooped and died
First victims of the poisonous fumes—

That warned of the oncoming tide;
And all the creeping things that came
With foresight of the gas and flame;

The rodent-seeking snakes, that hid
The trenches of the deadly pest;
And white mice from the submarines
That made the deep-air test.

Yea, all of these, perchance, meet there
In unseen currents of the air
Amid the great one; bringing all
Their causes to the Judgment Hall.

To the American People

IT is the declared purpose of the United States Government to restore the railroads at an early date to the control of their owners.

The Association of Railway Executives represents those upon whom at that time responsibility will again rest for the prompt and successful movement of the country's commerce.

Those constituting this Association are keenly conscious of their accountability to the public.

They have accordingly determined to present as fully as they can, the fundamental facts and considerations which they themselves must face in their efforts to provide satisfactory railroad service.

It is hoped to engage the interest of the whole American people, whose welfare is so vitally dependent upon adequate transportation.

The country can grow only as the railroads grow. The railroad problem must be solved—and solved rightly and soon—if our country is to prosper.

It is to promote that prosperity —permanently and in the interest of the whole people—that railroad executives will present to the public the situation as they see it.

TO OUR PEA GROWERS

We are ready to contract for the growing of peas for 1920. We will pay $60.00 per ton for peas, there being no change in the price over last year. We are compelled to begin contracting a little earlier this season, owing to the fact that our acreage will be considerably increased over last season. This will necessitate more equipment that we may be able to handle the crop quickly, thus saving time and expense to the farmer as well as ourselves.

Our Mr. Harry Hyer, field and soil inspector, is now looking after contracts for Peas for the coming year and he will gladly go into the matter fully on the subject of the growing of peas. It is not necessary to explain the value of growing peas as it is generally understood that it is a profitable crop yielding as much as $125.00 per acre; maturing within 60 days after seeding, allowing the grower to put on a second crop of sweet corn, field corn or Lima beans.

It being a leguminous plant, gathering nitrogen from the air as is done by clover, alfalfa and other plants, a pea crop leaves the soil richer in nitrogen than before it was grown, as you know nitrogen is the most important and most costly of all essential soil elements. Remember this one fact, the growing of peas is the only practical way of securing a stand of alfalfa or clover because it is a nurture crop. We refer you to a few of our growers of peas who will gladly explain their past success:

We shall begin inoculating our seed at our plant about January 1st, to insure a production of little nodules on the plants. Our Mr. Harry Hyer will gladly assist you in securing samples of your soil and if you desire, we will test this soil, advising you of any deficiency, and how to remedy same. We will be glad to furnish lime product at cost, which will be $3.25 per ton.

SECOND NUMBER LECTURE COURSE

The next number of the Washington Lecture Course, Thursday night of this week, will be Sir John Foster Fraser, famous British world traveler and author, who was knighted by King George of England in 1917 for his notable work as head of the National War Lectures Committee of Great Britain.

The noted author is the first British lecturer who ever appeared in Washington and he is without a par in all England today.

Sir John Foster Fraser promises to be one of the big numbers of the course, and a real treat for everyone who can hear him. He is a recognized authority on Russia and the Balkans, having spent many years in these countries.

NO MERCY SHOWN TO SHOPLIFTERS

This is the season of the year when the shoplifter gets busy, and unless a careful watch is maintained, the thief may get away with valuable goods.

However the attitude of merchants toward shoplifters has changed in the last year or two, and now, instead of showing leniency, as some merchants were inclined to do when the shoplifter was caught red-handed, vigorous prosecution for theft is the attitude taken, with the result that a decided crimp has been placed in the nefarious work of stealing goods from counters.

So far this year no shoplifters have been caught in this city, and it is believed that there is very little of the work being carried on here.

AGREEMENT MAY SECURE LEAGUE

Tom Suttles, former captain of the Wilmington Clintons, but who now claims this city as his postoffice address, states that he was on a scouting trip to Wilmington over the week end with a view to sizing up the baseball situation. The management in this city is willing to enter into an agreement for a four team league and he says that the men likely to back the movement in the neighboring town are Arthur, Champlin, Frank and Jim Murphy, Sharkey, Hale, and Geiselman.

Greenfield is willing to enter into the quartet but there still remains the selection of another team to fill out the number. Chillicothe is mentioned very favorably. Circleville and Xenia are others that might join the league.

Men comment on the long life of their collars when laundered by us—and collar cost is quite an item these days. Together with that life-giving care we give them is that pure white finish so much desired by particular men.

MEMOIR

Worrell
Mary Ellen, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Franklin Worrell was born May the 8th, 1918 and departed this life December 12, 1919, age 19 months 4 days. She leaves both parents and grand parents to mourn her loss. Mary Ellen was a bright and attractive little girl and was beloved by all. A bud on earth to bloom in Heaven. One sweet flower on earth has faded. One sweet infant voice has fled. One fair treasure earth has shaded. For our darling now is dead.

We have clasped her white hands above her still breast. Lay her down softly and leave her to rest. Sweetly she slumbers for sickness is over. Friendship and love she needs here no more. We've pressed on her lips our last kiss of love the Angels have welcomed our darling above. Funeral services were conducted at the home of the grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Martz on N. Mulberry St. Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock to a large assembly of sympathizing friends. Rev. H. C. Leeth officiating.

CARD OF THANKS

We wish too thank our relatives and neighbors for their kindness and help during the sickness and death of our little daughter. Also for the beautiful flowers.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Franklin Worrell

Camel Cigarettes

CAMEL Cigarettes meet your taste in many new and unusual ways. You quickly become fond of them—they are so refreshing and cool and fragrant.

You see, Camels are an expert blend of choice Turkish and choice Domestic tobaccos which guarantees the most delightful cigarette qualities that have ever been put into a cigarette. Your test will prove that you prefer the expert Camel blend to either kind of tobacco smoked straight.

Camels blend not only frees the cigarettes from any unpleasant cigarettey aftertaste or any unpleasant cigarettey odor but it assures that remarkable mellow-mild-body! And, you'll be interested to know that no matter how liberally you smoke Camels they will not tire your taste!

Camels are a cigarette revelation! Prove that yourself! We suggest right here that you compare Camels with any cigarettes in the world at any price for quality and for satisfaction!

Camels are sold everywhere in scientifically sealed packages of 20 cigarettes or ten packages (200 cigarettes) in a glassine-paper-covered carton. We strongly recommend this carton for the home or office supply or when you travel.
